Eight Charter Members Attend Banquet Held as Feature of Celebration Here

Eight of the more than 400 members of the K. of C. Chapter No. 1013, which celebrated its thirty-fifth anniversary last night, gathered for a banquet at the Hotel Hamilton. The celebration was the first of a series of events planned for the occasion. The banquet was presided over by the chapter's president, and featured a program of music and entertainment. The eight charter members of the chapter were also present, and their participation was a highlight of the evening. The chapter has a long and distinguished history, and this anniversary provided an opportunity for members to reflect on their achievements and the growth of the organization over the past three decades.

Competent Service Is Needed For a Funeral

A funeral service is a memory investment. If properly planned and conducted it eventually becomes a cherished memory. But a funeral service cannot be rehearsed nor repeated. Consequently only competent services can be depended upon.

Modern facilities and equipment including our beautiful Funeral Home have added their part to Schaffner-Denzer Funeral Service. But they are after all the part which money could purchase. In the personnel of our organization is the accumulation of knowledge and experience perfected through more than seventy years of service to the people of Marion and vicinity.

Schaffner-Denzer Funeral Service is within the means of every family. A visit to our Funeral Home where you will be shown a wide range of funeral services with plainly marked prices will be convincing evidence. Those who cannot call may send for our new booklet "Facts About Funerals." It will be mailed free of charge upon request.

BY MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE
Associated Press Writer
Every hostess who entertains for a special occasion should have a variety of salads. They are not only delicious but also attractive. A hostess tray should be arranged with a variety of salads, including tomato baskets, beet and carrot balls, and cottage cheese salads. These salads are not only delicious but also attractive and easy to make.

Salads are especially appropriate for serving in the late spring and summer time. They are simple to prepare and can be made in advance. A hostess tray should be arranged with a variety of salads, including tomato baskets, beet and carrot balls, and cottage cheese salads. These salads are not only delicious but also attractive and easy to make.

Tomato Baskets
The tomato baskets in the illustration were made by removing the skin from the tomatoes, cutting out the core with a sharp knife, and scooping out seeds and pulp with a spoon. This is to make a hollow shell. The baskets are then filled with a mixture of finely minced onions, cucumbers, green beans, and radishes, all seasoned with French dressing to which a little Roquefort cheese has been added.

Beet and Carrot Balls
The salad in the middle of the two centers of beet and carrot balls, mixed together and seasoned with house-made oil and vinegar. The balls were made by rolling the vegetables into balls, which were then cooked in a French dressing until they were tender. The balls were then served on a platter with French dressing.

Cottage Cheese Salad
Cottage cheese is topped with salad dressing and piled on a bed of lettuce. The salad is then garnished with a variety of vegetables, including cucumbers, tomatoes, and radishes. The salad is then served on a platter with French dressing.

Spaghetti and Shrimp
This is a novel dish for lunch or a light dinner. It is made by cooking spaghetti in a tomato sauce, and then adding shrimp. The dish is then garnished with a variety of vegetables, including cucumbers, tomatoes, and radishes. The dish is then served on a platter with French dressing.

Club Steaks
Club steaks are a popular dish for lunch or dinner. They are made by cooking a steak in a tomato sauce, and then adding a variety of vegetables, including cucumbers, tomatoes, and radishes. The dish is then served on a platter with French dressing.
